

SANDWICH PLACEMENT OPPORTUNITY AT EARTHWORKS ST ALBANS STARTING SEPTEMBER 2019

Job Title:	Placement Project Worker
Location:	Earthworks site, Hixberry Lane, St Albans, Hertfordshire, AL4 0TZ
Number of Vacancies:	One
Salary:	£10,300
Duration:	48 weeks
Hours:	35 hours per week (9.15am – 4.35pm, Monday to Friday)

Earthworks St. Albans is a registered charity that offers social and therapeutic horticulture and other nature-based activities for Earthworkers, individuals with a learning disability. Earthworkers, volunteers and staff learn and work together to develop and maintain 3.5 acres of eco-gardens, with a focus on environmental sustainability, organic horticulture and traditional countryside skills.

Working at Earthworks offers students a wide range of experiences and responsibilities. We encourage students to contribute to various aspects of the organisation. From the outset the placement student will be involved in teaching and demonstrating practical outdoor skills and sustainable horticulture. They will plan and deliver an academic project that enhances the Earthworks site, evidences the charities social impact or fosters improved working practices. The placement student will also help to maintain the Earthworks site and equipment, organise events, develop educational materials, and undertake a range of office-based tasks.

Earthworks St Albans is committed to equality in the work place and positively encourages applications from appropriately qualified and experienced candidates, regardless of age, sex, race, religion or belief, disability, sexual orientation, gender reassignment, marital/civil partnership status, or pregnancy and maternity.

The closing date for applications is 5pm Friday 7th June
